From our farm to your table

Hi there,

Farm-to-table eating has many benefits. It uses fresher, tastier and more nutritious ingredients, supports local agriculture, and reduces the costs of heavy transportation. Although it sounds fancy and complicated, it's actually quite simple and accessible. All you need are locally sourced whole foods and great, easy-to-make recipes that highlight the season's bounty.

The recipes here give you just that! We've been making them ever since we joined our first CSA as a young family. Back then, we loved them because they were easy, the whole family enjoyed them, and they helped us use up all those veggies in our weekly share. Today, they have stood the test of time! Nearly 20 years later, we are still making them!

You'll find many of the ingredients in our online store, produced by us and our local partners. Each recipe highlights the best of the fall harvest, from winter squash and root vegetables to fresh-cut greens.

Give them a try and let us know what you think! And if you have a favorite fall harvest recipe, we'd love you to share it with us!

From our farm to your table, with gratitude,

Kim and George

OUR STORY

About Bold Love

Bold Love started at our family table.

Years ago, when our kids were young, we joined a local CSA because we wanted to eat more fresh vegetables. We were amazed by how much could be grown close to home—and by how much better it tasted. That experience changed the way we ate. We started growing more of our own food, cooking with the seasons, and learning to preserve the harvest.

Over time, what began as a way to feed our own family grew into a desire to feed our community. That became Bold Love Farm.

The bakery grew from the same place. There is something deeply satisfying about handing someone a fresh loaf of sourdough bread or a really good cookie and seeing their face light up. We make our baked goods with the same priorities we bring to the farm: quality ingredients, great flavor, and food made with care.

Today, the farm and bakery are simply two parts of the same idea:

Local food, grown, baked, and prepared with care.

Herb Roasted Sweet Potatoes

Serves 4

INGREDIENTS

- 4 medium sweet potatoes, peeled and cut into chunks
- 3 tbsp olive oil
- 2 small cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tbsp fresh thyme leaves
- 1/4 tsp red-pepper flakes (optional, but oh so good!)
- 1 tsp coarse salt

Directions

1. Preheat your oven to 400°F.
2. In a large bowl, toss the sweet potato pieces with the olive oil, minced garlic, fresh thyme, red-pepper flakes, and salt.
3. Transfer the mixture to a rimmed baking sheet in a single layer.
4. Roast until the potatoes are tender and golden brown, about 40 to 45 minutes.

Baked Spaghetti Squash Lasagna

Serves 6

INGREDIENTS

- 1 spaghetti squash, halved lengthwise and seeded
- 1 tbsp olive oil
- 1 onion, chopped
- 2 tbsp minced garlic
- 2 (14 oz) cans stewed tomatoes
- 1 tbsp dried basil
- 1 cube vegetable bouillon
- Black pepper to taste
- 1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1 cup shredded Parmesan cheese

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 325°F.
2. Spray a baking sheet with a thin layer of cooking spray (or line with parchment paper). Place squash halves cut-side down on the baking sheet.
3. Bake squash in the preheated oven until a knife can be easily inserted, about 35 minutes. Remove from the oven and let cool.
4. Heat olive oil in a pan over medium heat. Sauté onion and garlic until golden brown. Stir in stewed tomatoes, basil, bouillon cube, and black pepper. Cook until thickened, about 15 minutes.
5. Remove squash strands with a fork. In a baking dish, cover bottom with a spoonful of sauce, then half of the spaghetti squash strands, a layer of sauce, and then the mozzarella cheese. Finish with remaining squash, remaining sauce, and top with Parmesan cheese.
6. Bake in the preheated oven until Parmesan cheese melts, about 20 minutes.

Italian Sausage and Kale Soup

Serves 4

INGREDIENTS

- 2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
- 1 lb Italian sausage
- 3 medium potatoes, peeled and cut into chunks
- 2 medium onions, chopped
- 5 cloves garlic, chopped
- 2 bay leaves, dried
- 1 lb kale, stems removed and coarsely chopped
- Coarse salt and pepper
- 1 can chickpeas (15 oz), drained and rinsed
- 1 can diced tomatoes (15 oz)
- 1 quart chicken broth
- A loaf of crusty sourdough bread, warmed through

Directions

1. Heat the olive oil in a deep pot over medium-high heat. Add the sausage and let brown for 2-3 minutes. Add the potatoes, onions, garlic and bay leaves.
2. Cook for 8 minutes, stirring occasionally. Season with just a little salt and pepper. Add the chickpeas, tomatoes and broth to the pot and bring the soup to a full boil. Add the kale to the pot and wilt the greens, about 2 minutes.
3. Reduce the heat to medium and cook for 5-10 minutes longer, until the potatoes are tender. Serve soup with hunks of crusty bread alongside.

Vegetarian/vegan note: Substitute vegetarian sausage (such as Field Roast Italian Sausage) and vegetable broth.

Roasted Carrots with Carrot Top Pesto

Serves 6

THE CARROTS

- 2 bunches of carrots
- 2 tsp olive oil
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1/4 tsp pepper

THE PESTO

- 2 cups carrot top leafy greens
- 1/3 cup salted toasted cashews
- 1/3 cup olive oil
- 2 tbsp freshly squeezed lemon juice
- 1 clove garlic
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1/4 tsp pepper

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 425°F. Chop the carrots into 2-inch lengths. Place in a bowl and toss them with the oil, salt, and pepper. Roast the carrots for 20 minutes.
2. Place the carrot top pesto ingredients in your food processor or small blender and blend until mostly smooth.
3. When the carrots are cooked, toss them in 1/2 cup of the pesto and serve.

Note: You will have more pesto than you need for this recipe. The extra is delicious served with chicken. Or save it to put on eggs, in a sandwich, or tossed with pasta.

Roasted Beets

INGREDIENTS

- 4 to 5 medium beets
- 1 to 2 tablespoons olive oil
- Salt and black pepper to taste
- 1 tablespoon Balsamic vinegar

Directions

1. Prep the beets: Preheat your oven to 400°F. Trim off greens and tails. Wash the beets clean.
2. Make the foil packet: Place the beets on a sheet of aluminum foil (you can wrap them individually or together). Drizzle them with olive oil and sprinkle with salt and pepper.
3. Seal and roast: Tightly seal the foil around the beets to trap the steam. Roast in the oven for 45 to 60 minutes, or until a fork or paring knife slides easily into the center.
4. Peel and serve: Let them cool. Rub the skins off using your hands. Slice and toss in a bowl with extra salt, pepper, balsamic vinegar and olive oil. Enjoy immediately or store in the fridge and add to salads, sandwiches, or mix with other roasted veggies for an extra flavorful side dish.

Tips

Six practical tips from our kitchen for getting more out of the season.

01 Eat more greens!

This is the easiest way to boost your nutritional intake, lower inflammation, and support bone and brain health. Cool weather is when greens like lettuce, spinach, kale and arugula really shine! We add them to smoothies, omelets or egg scrambles, and eat a lot of salad suppers where fresh greens are topped with cooked veggies, a protein and drizzled with your favorite dressing.

02 Keep fresh herbs within reach.

Place cut bundles in a small glass or jar on the counter with a bit of water covering the base of the stems (as you would a bouquet of flowers). Then, just pinch off a bit of leaves and toss into salads, eggs, or roasted meats and veggies.

03 Thaw frozen local meats ahead.

Most local meats like the ones we sell from Delaney Glen Farms are sold frozen. Pull the packages from the freezer and put in the fridge a day or two in advance so that they are thawed and ready to cook when you are.

04 Store up summer veggies for winter.

The season of fresh tomatoes and peppers is coming to an end. But, you can store up this goodness for winter by chopping, roasting, and freezing them. It takes just about 10-20 minutes in a 400°F oven. I freeze peppers in a Ziplock freezer bag and then pull out what I need for soups, salsa, and bean dip through the winter. I freeze tomatoes in small deli containers and use them in place of canned tomatoes in any recipe that calls for them, like sauces, soups, salsa, and flatbreads.

05 Sharp knives make a huge difference!

Safer and faster than dull knives, sharp knives are a must in the kitchen. You can get your knives sharpened quickly and inexpensively at the local Ace Hardware. We do this at least once every season.

06 Parchment paper

Do yourself a favor and make cleanup a snap. Line your baking sheets with parchment paper before roasting or baking.
